

American Surgical Welcomes Mark Cherney as Chairman

May 9, 2011

GREENWICH, CT and HOUSTON, TX – American Surgical Assistants, Inc (“American Surgical”), a leading provider of in operating room surgical assistants today announced the appointment of Mark Cherney as Chairman of American Surgical. Mr. Cherney is currently the CEO and President of Prologics, Inc. which he co-founded in 2005 and has an extensive background of health care services experience. Previously, Mr. Cherney was CEO of Dolphin Medical, Princeps and President of Endocare. Mr. Cherney began his career at Baxter and Medstone.

Zak Elgamal, CEO of American Surgical said, “GPP brought in an entrepreneur who as CEO grew four prior health care services companies and now serves as the Company’s Chairman. We will work with Mark to provide market leading quality service to our customers. We are honored to have Mr. Cherney as Chairman.”

Mr. Cherney added, “American Surgical has consistently done a great job of providing high quality services to the hospitals, surgeons and patients. I am excited to become the Chairman of its Board.”

About American Surgical Assistants, Inc.

Founded in 1999 and headquartered in Houston, TX, American Surgical through its subsidiaries provides professional surgical assistant services to patients, surgeons and healthcare institutions. The Company is a joint commission certified surgical assistant services company. Its services result in cost savings for patients, insurance carriers, hospitals, surgeons, and healthcare institutions while maintaining high quality of service. Reach American Surgical at www.Asainc.us or by calling 713-779-9800.